

Republic of Turkey

Population: 80 million

Capital City: Ankara

Mustafa Kemal Atatürk

Founder of Republic of Turkey
(1881-1938)

Turkish Flag

According to the history, the crescent on the Turkish flag means Islam and star Turkism, red color represents the blood of Turkish soldiers.

Anıtkabir (Çankaya, Ankara, Turkey) Mustafa Kemal Atatürk's Tomb

Saint Pierre Church (Antakya, Hatay, Turkey)

The first cave church in the world.

Istanbul Bridge

This bridge located in Istanbul. A water passage connecting the Black Sea and the Marmara Sea.

Ayasofya Museum/Mosque (Hagia Sophia)

Istanbul, Turkey

Evil Eye Bead (Nazar Bead)

Throughout history, in most cultures (especially in Turkey) and religious beliefs, the eye figure has been considered a powerful talisman that destroys evil powers.

Folk Dance

Turkish folk dances are held in the territory of Turkey. There are many different types of folk dances performed in various forms in Turkey, and they reflect the cultural structure of each region.

Turkish Coffee

Turkish Kabab

Turkish Yogurt (Yoğurt)

Buttermilk (Ayrân)

Künefe (Desert)

Baklava

Efes Antik Kenti (Museum)

İzmir, Turkey

Ephesus (Ephesus) was founded by female warriors known as Amazon.

From Turkey, With Love and Regards To Poland! (Galata Tower, Istanbul, Turkey)

Prepared by: Ece Yaren Aşkar

